

"When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall LIFT UP A STANDARD AGAINST HIM."

— Isaiah 59:19

THE GOSPEL
STANDARD

Volume 59

May – 2010

Number 8

My Mission Field

*I longed to do some wondrous thing
Some noble deed for Christ, my King.
A missionary I would be
But God had other plans for me.*

*He placed me in a humble home
And said, "My child, you need not roam
O'er distant lands to tell of Me,
I have a place right here for thee.*

*The children I have given you,
Folks all around you need Me too."
What once was hardship, now grows dim,
I do my daily tasks for Him.*

*My humble work is glorified,
And all my joys are magnified.
To Christ, my life, my all I yield;
And I, too, have a mission field.*

— Gladys McConnell

100

95

75

25

5

0